based on PM², and supported by PM² alliance, that includes:

- 12 hours synchronous
and 12 hours asynchronous training moments and team challenges, focusing on technical and behavioral project management competences;
to respond to, creating a competition among the teams, focusing on successful teamwork;
- A set of challenges, driven by a project case study/scenario, for teams.

CONCEPT

This event is designed to challenge each participants' technical abilities, creating and exploring teamwork, leadership and communication situations, a balanced mix of training episodes and a serious game supported on a project scenario that provides the environment to strengthen technical and soft skills fundamental to the job of project manager.

TARGET

PROJECT MANAGERS AND PROJECT TEAM MEMBERS

wishing to improve their skills on project management and increase their knowledge on PM², especially those aiming for a certification on PM².

Teams composed of 3 to 4 elements.

PROGRAM

THE EVENT WILL FOCUS on two different yet complimentary set of competences required for a successful and effective project manager: technical competences and soft skills.

The training elements and the challenges that the teams will be exposed to, during 24HPM², are designed with the purpose of raising awareness and create experiences directed to the following objectives:

- Develop a modern holistic perspective on Project Management practices, based on PM² (European Project Management Methodology);
- Articulate the difference between needs, requirements, deliverables, and benefits of the Project.
- Develop a clear understanding of the PM² Project Life Cycle, PM² Phases and Drivers,
- Develop an integrated perspective to Monitor and Control the project
- Understand the nature of the problems in project planning
- Understand the communication requirements for an effective PM
- Develop leadership and teamwork qualities and skills
